

DISCOVER PHILADELPHIA'S HIDDEN PAST: AN ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH CELEBRATION, 2006

A Free Public Program - No Registration is Required

- ❖ WHEN: Saturday, October 14th
- ❖ WHERE: Independence Living History Center Archeology Laboratory,
Third Street between Chestnut and Walnut Streets

PROGRAM SCHEDULE

Morning Session (10:00 - 12:15):

- 10:00 - 10:05 Welcome
10:05 - 10:15 Introduction (Dave Orr)
10:30 - 10:45 Before William Penn: Archeological Evidence of Philadelphia's First Inhabitants (James Kenworthy)
10:45 - 11:00 Pirates on the Delaware: The Facts and the Legends about the Marcus Hook Plank Log House (Joe Blondino)
11:00 - 11:15 "Make Sure You Aim, For One Shot Well Pointed Is Worth A Dozen Thrown Away": Archeological Evidence of a Musketry Range at Valley Forge National Historical Park (Wade P. Catts)
11:15 - 11:30 Early Philadelphia Ceramics: Sun Plates and Indian Bowls (Dave Orr)
11:30 - 11:45 A Tale of Two Privies: An Up-Close and Personal Look at the "Necessaries" of Downtown Philadelphia (Mara Kaktins)
11:45 - 12:00 Once Upon a Cemetery: The Re-making of Franklin Square (Rebecca Yamin)
12:00 - 12:15 The James Oronoco Dexter Site Revisited: Final Excavation Findings (Douglas Mooney)
- 12:15 - 2:00 Lunch (on your own). The ILHC Archeology Laboratory will remain open for visits.

Afternoon Session (2:00 - 5:00):

- 2:00 - 2:15 Introduction (Jed Levin)
2:15 - 2:45 Film: "That's Where the Tunnel Is": Exploring the Willie Sutton Tunnel at Eastern State Penitentiary (Directed by Conrad Zimmer)
Introduced By: Matt Harris
2:45 - 4:15 Film: In The Shadow of Liberty: The Search for James Oronoco Dexter (Directed by Mitchell Smith)
Introduced By: Jed Levin
4:15 - 5:00 Film: Ground Truth: Archaeology in the City (Directed by Richard E. Robinson)
Introduced By: Rebecca Yamin

For questions or more information call: (215) 861-4956 or go to www.PhillyArchaeology.org

*A Very Special Program for Pennsylvania Archaeology Month
Co-Sponsored By:*

Philadelphia
Archaeological Forum

Independence National Historical Park

