

The Early Colonial Delaware Valley—An Archaeological Symposium

May 4, 2013

New Castle Court House Museum

211 Delaware St.

New Castle, DE

Schedule of activities

- 9:30 a.m. Welcoming remarks by symposium coordinator Craig Lukezic, archaeologist with the Delaware Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs.
- 10 a.m. “Hunt for Fort Christina: An Update of an Ongoing Collective Effort.” Presented by Craig Lukezic, Bill Chadwick and Liz LaVigne.
- 10:30 a.m. “Recent Excavations at Fort Casimir.” Presented by Wade Catts.
- 11 a.m. “The Elkins Site, A & B.” Presented by Bill Liebeknecht.
- 11:30 a.m. Presentations on the archaeology and preservation of historic New Castle by students of the Department of Anthropology, University of Delaware. Introduction by Lu Ann De Cunzo and Nikki Laws. Presentation on the Amstel House by Gabrielle Pirro, Sarah Driver and Kahlil Boatright. Presentation on the Dutch House by Patrick Smith, Binta Bah and Katie Goerger.
- Noon Lunch on your own
- 1:30 p.m. “Fort Nya Goteborg.” Presented by Marshall Becker.
- 2 p.m. “West Shipyard, the late 17th–18th-century shipyard in Philadelphia.” Presented by Rebecca Yamin.