Reason for Full Access

Terms and Conditions: Full access to CHRIS is based on eligibility for access to confidential site information. DHCA will check the applicant's credentials. Access to CHRIS will expire at the end of six months. For continued access, the user must make another application; submit this not less than 15 days before the end of an existing account to avoid a gap in access. Passwords are assigned by DHCA and cannot be reset by the user.

Cultural and Historical Resource Information System (CHRIS) Disclaimer

The information provided on this site is for the convenience of the user and is compiled from existing maps, inventory forms, National Register nomination forms, and survey reports. In the preparation of this site, efforts continue to be made to offer the most correct and clearly expressed information possible. However, errors can occur, and information placed on these web pages does not replace official records. The official records should be reviewed to verify the information provided on these pages.

The use of any of this information is at your own risk. The Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs does not assume any legal responsibility for the information contained herein, which is provided "as is" with no warranties of any kind. The Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs disclaims all liability of any kind arising out of the use of, or misuse of, this information and disclaims all express or implied warranties, including warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, and non-infringement of proprietary rights. The Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs will not be liable for any actions, damages, or judgments of any nature whatsoever arising out of the use or misuse of the information contained in these pages. Use of these data does not replace consultation with the Division of Historical and Cultural Affairs, State Historic Preservation Office under Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966, for federal or state tax credit applications, or under the State's Antiquities or Unmarked Human Remains Acts.

I have read and understood the terms and conditions and the disclaimer.
