

DELAWARE ARCHAEOLOGY AND HISTORY SYMPOSIUM 2023

APRIL 22, 2023

9:00AM TO 4:00PM

OLD STATE HOUSE MUSEUM

25 THE GREEN, DOVER, DE

9:00 - 9:15	Welcome: Gwen Davis (Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer) & John Martin (President of the Archaeological Society of Delaware)
9:15 - 9:45	Paul Nasca (Delaware HCA, Curator of Archaeology): Earthenware and Stoneware Production In The First State
9:45 - 10:15	Andrea Anderson (University of Delaware Department of Anthropology): The Material Culture and Spatial Contexts of Armed Conflicts in New Netherland: A Gender Perspective
10:15 - 10:30	Break - help yourself to refreshments on the 2nd Floor
10:30 - 11:00	Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): Archaeological Data Recovery at the Clark Tenant Site (7S-C-108), Routes 1 and 16 Interchange Project, Sussex County, Delaware
11:00-11:30	Constance Cooper (Former Chief Curator Delaware Historical Society): Michael Sterling and His Descendants: An African American Family in Wilmington, Delaware (1830-1945)
11:30 - 12:00	Samantha Side (University of Delaware Department of Anthropology): Identity, Spirituality, and Community at the John Dickinson Plantation Based on The Collection From Block III
12:00 - 1:00	Lunch - bring your own
1:00 - 1:30	Brett Arnold (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Technology in Interdisciplinary Studies for the Restoration of the Gardens and Work Yard at Cloverfields (182U868)
1:30 - 2:00	John Bansch (Historic Odessa Foundation): The "63-Year-old" Search for the Elusive 1767 Corbit Tannery in Odessa, DE
2:00 - 2:15	Break
2:15 - 2:45	John P. McCarthy, R.P.A. (retired, Formerly of Delaware State Parks): The Wiley Site at the Village of Little Jersey - A Forgotten African-American Community
2:45 - 3:10	Daniel R. Griffith (ASD, Griffith Archaeology Consulting): American Indian Ceramics of Delaware
3:10 - 4:00	Daniel R. Griffith (ASD, Griffith Archaeology Consulting): Workshop in Identifying American Indian Ceramics of Delaware