DELMARVA ARCHAEOLOGY AND HISTORY SYMPOSIUM 2024

APRIL 27, 2024
9:00AM TO 4:00PM
CITIZENS' HOSE COMPANY
103 WEST COMMERCE STREET, SMYRNA, DE

9:15 - 9:45 Tucker Dempsey (Director, Delaware Fire School): Delaware Fire Service History 9:45 - 10:15 Darius Johnson (Digital Justice Fellow, Washington College): Digital Archives and Community-Dr History in Kent County, Maryland 10:15 - 10:30 Break - Help yourself to refreshments 10:30 - 11:00 John McCarthy (Archaeologist, DelDOT): Extraordinary Uses of Ordinary Things: Negotiating Ide the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia 11:00 - 11:30 Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, Idea of the C's Impacted the First State 11:30 - 12:00 Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own 1:00 - 1:30 Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183). Wicomico County, Maryland Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists
9:45 - 10:15 Darius Johnson (Digital Justice Fellow, Washington College): Digital Archives and Community-Dr History in Kent County, Maryland 10:15 - 10:30 Break - Help yourself to refreshments 10:30 - 11:00 John McCarthy (Archaeologist, DelDOT): Extraordinary Uses of Ordinary Things: Negotiating Ide the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia 11:00 - 11:30 Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, Identification of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own 1:00 - 1:30 Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	9:00 - 9:15	Welcome: Gwen Davis (Deputy State Historic Preservation Officer) & John Martin (President of the Archaeological Society of Delaware)
History in Kent County, Maryland 10:15 - 10:30 Break - Help yourself to refreshments 10:30 - 11:00 John McCarthy (Archaeologist, DelDOT): Extraordinary Uses of Ordinary Things: Negotiating Ide the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia 11:00 - 11:30 Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, 1 11:30 - 12:00 Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own 1:00 - 1:30 Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swamendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wiccomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	9:15 - 9:45	Tucker Dempsey (Director, Delaware Fire School): Delaware Fire Service History
John McCarthy (Archaeologist, DelDOT): Extraordinary Uses of Ordinary Things: Negotiating Ide the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia 11:00 - 11:30 Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, Idea of the C's Impacted the First State Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sisters. Jormerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	9:45 - 10:15	Darius Johnson (Digital Justice Fellow, Washington College): Digital Archives and Community-Driven History in Kent County, Maryland
the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia 11:00 - 11:30 Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, I 11:30 - 12:00 Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18 WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	10:15 - 10:30	Break - Help yourself to refreshments
11:30 - 12:00 Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaw the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists 3:15 - 3:45 John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	10:30 - 11:00	John McCarthy (Archaeologist, DelDOT): Extraordinary Uses of Ordinary Things: Negotiating Identity at the Cemeteries of the First African Baptist Church, Philadelphia
the C's Impacted the First State 12:00 - 1:00 Lunch - On your own Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	11:00 - 11:30	Dr. Jim Jones (retired, formerly of West Chester University): Free Black Communities in Newark, Delaware
1:00 - 1:30 Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments 2:15 - 2:45 Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	11:30 - 12:00	Katherine Little (Curator of Historic Collections, HCA): The Civilian Conservation Corps in Delaware, How the C's Impacted the First State
Bill Liebknecht (Dovetail Cultural Resource Group): "A Tract of Land Called the Bohemia Three Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	12:00 - 1:00	Lunch - On your own
1:30 - 2:00 Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New County, Delaware 2:00 - 2:15 Break - Help yourself to refreshments Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists 3:15 - 3:45 John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	1:00 - 1:30	Ed Otter (Edward Otter, Inc.): The Search for Swanendael
Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates W (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists 3:15 - 3:45 John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	1:30 - 2:00	Sistersformerly in Cecil County," A CRM Success Story Along the Mid-Peninsular Divide in New Castle
2:15 - 2:45 (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland 2:45 - 3:15 Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists 3:15 - 3:45 John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	2:00 - 2:15	Break - Help yourself to refreshments
3:15 - 3:45 John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves	2:15 - 2:45	Emily Masters (Applied Archaeology and History Associates, Inc.): Investigations at the Pirates Wharf Site (18WC183), Wicomico County, Maryland
	2:45 - 3:15	Marian Young (President, Brightfields): HazMat Safety for Archaeologists
3:45 - 4:00 Closing Remarks	3:15 - 3:45	John Martin (Cultural Resources Program Supervisor, DelDOT): Before We're Beneath the Waves
	3:45 - 4:00	Closing Remarks

